Nobody could find fault with President Wilson for dropping Secretary of War Baker forthwith from his Cabinet. Mr. Baker has demonstrated so thoroughly his unfitness for the office he holds that Mr. Wilson would embarrass the country immeasurably by retaining him. Psychological analysis such as was offered in an attempt to lessen the curse of the "too proud to fight" phrase balked at the job of defending Baker's insult in likening our Revolutionary patriots to Mexican cut-throats.

It is good to hear that Mr. Baker will not be reappointed in any case, but why should he not be drummed out of office now instead of on March 4? And why not make Josephine Daniels walk the plank without delay? He has refrained from defaming the men of '76, but he is as great an incubus to the navy as Baker is to the army. This pair of precious incompetents should be thrown into the waste basket together.

It is true that in view of Secretary Garrison's experience and the chaos wrought in the war and Navy departments by Baker and
